

Fine Art Resources

Develop your interests and independent learning skills by reading around your subject.

EYFS best practice in schools: in the picture: following an increased engagement in visual art during the pandemic, how can early years settings continue to support children's creativity? Nursery World, June 2021 issue.

The artist who went to work with psychologists: A. R. Hopwood has created major art exhibitions about some familiar psychology. Psychology Review, April 2020 issue.

'The Big Issue': industry focus: Q&A with Art Director Ross Lesley-Bayne: Year 12 students from St Mary's School, Buckinghamshire, interview 'The Big Issue' Art Director about the magazine and his unique job. Media Magazine, December 2019 issue.

Timeline: art styles: explore the trajectory of art styles, from realism to pop art and beyond. Modern History Review, February 2018 issue.

Psychology of the 'migrant crisis': the power of pictures: social psychologists explain why a picture makes all the difference. Psychology Review, April 2016 issue.

From cathedral to cinema: the influence of Gothic art in film: art student and video-maker Luke traces the visual origins of the Gothic style. Media Magazine, December 2013 issue.

All of these resources can be borrowed from the Library. Search your Online Library Catalogue to find even more for Fine Art, study skills, careers, wellbeing and fiction.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE ANY HELP FINDING OR USING YOUR RESOURCES, JUST ASK RACHEL